The University of Rhode Island's Preparatory Music Program is offering the fourth annual exciting, creative, educational and inspiring Jazz Intensive Summer Day Camp for students in grades 9-12 and adults. Younger students with experience may qualify.

Jam packed with specialized classes, combos, jam sessions and Master classes for each instrument, students will learn in an intensive non-competitive setting taught by URI's award-winning jazz faculty.

The goal of the week is to maximize exposure to as many different playing situations and jazz styles as possible.

The final afternoon will provide an opportunity for all students to perform in ensembles including Big Band (subject to instrumentation).

Faculty specializing in piano, guitar, bass, woodwinds, brass and drum set will help to create a diverse musical experience. Do you play an instrument not listed and want to learn to improvise? that's ok too.
