

The University of Rhode Island Preparatory Music Program is offering the exciting, creative, educational, and inspiring 2007 Summer Intensive Jazz & Percussion Week for students in grades 9-12 and adults. Jam packed with Big Bands, Theory and Specialized Classes, Combos, Master Classes, and Concerts students will learn in an intensive, noncompetitive setting taught by URI's award-winning jazz faculty. Small class size enhances individual attention and focus on the student. Classes will include Theory, Improvisation, and Ear Training. Master Classes in each instrument will be offered. Friday night will provide an opportunity for all students to perform in Student Ensembles. Faculty specializing in piano, guitar, bass, drum set, percussion, saxophone, trumpet, and trombone will create a well-rounded balance of instruments. Dates: Monday, July 9th through Friday, July 13th from 1pm-7pm daily.
