

Guide to URI Non-Psychology Assistantships for Graduate Students in Psychology

This list was compiled to provide graduate students and prospective graduate students with contact information about assistantships on the URI campus. Listed below are the offices at URI (outside the Psychology Department) that offer assistantships, the weekly time commitment of the assistantship, the stipend and tuition remission offered, and the length of the assistantship. Please note that this list is not exhaustive but rather is based on what is currently known about assistantship openings.
