

The following table is a worksheet showing the course and grade requirements and progress for URI's major in Psychology. You do not have to take courses in order, from top to bottom in the chart, although Psy113 is a prerequisite for most other psychology courses.

Knowledge Objective	Courses	Required Minimum Credits and Grades
Broad Perspective	PSY113 Grade: _____	3 credits (C or better)
Intermediate Perspective	PSY232, 235, 254 Course 1: _____ Grade: _____ Course 2: _____ Grade: _____	6 credits (C or better average in the best two courses)
Methods of Inquiry and Analysis	PSY300 and 301 PSY 300 Grade: _____ PSY 301 Grade: _____	6 to 7 credits (C or better in each of the two courses, or at least a C average in the two courses if your catalogue year is before Fall 2001)
Topic Areas	PSY255, 310, 335, 361, 381, 384, 385, 388, 399, 425, 432, 434 , 436, 442, 460, 464, 470, 479 (selected topics), 480 Course 1: _____ Grade: _____ Course 2: _____ Grade: _____ Course 3: _____ Grade: _____	9 credits (C or better average in the best three courses)
Applied Knowledge	PSY103, 261, 275, 334, 399, 465, 466, 471, 477, 478, 479 (selected topics) Course: _____ Grade: _____	3 credits (C or better in one course)
Experiential Practica and Internships	305, 371, 473, 487, 488, 489, 499, URInternship* Course: _____ Grade: _____	3 credits (C or better in one course)
Enrichment	PSY405, 430, as well as any of the courses listed above, and any other psychology courses. (Upper-level students also may take 500 and 600 level psychology courses as electives, with the permission of the instructor.)	0 to 15 credits

Notes: At least four of the courses in bold are recommended for students intending to attend graduate school in psychology.

If PSY499 or a 15 credit internship is taken to fulfill this category, an additional 3 credits in psychology must be completed.