

Comments:

An important part of the Source Water Assessment Program is collecting volunteer evaluations and comments. Please use this paper to record any problems you encounter and the questions you have while out in the field completing the land use inventory. Also, feel free to write any suggestions you have for improvement.
