Udall Scholarship Pre-Application Info For URI Students

- Eligibility Criteria:
 - Currently a Sophomore or Junior
 - Students who have demonstrated commitment to careers related to the environment; or

Native American and Alaska Native students who have demonstrated commitment to careers: related to tribal public policy or to Native health care
 - Be pursuing full-time study during the 2011-2012 academic year
 - Be a U.S. citizen, U.S. national, or U.S. permanent resident
 - A GPA \geq 3.8
- The internal pre-application is due on January 14th by 4pm. It is to be turned in to Kathleen Maher, Assistant Director for National Fellowships of the Honors Program.
- The pre-application must include the following:
 1. A filled-out, printed version of the application, which may be downloaded from the Udall web site (www.udall.gov)
 2. An unofficial college transcript (from e-Campus)
 3. List of three individuals who, if you are nominated, will provide letters of reference. Along with their name and title, please provide a brief statement as to their relevance to your Udall nomination. (i.e. What can each recommender speak to in his/her letter that will help make your case as a great fit for the Udall Scholarship?)
- What the pre-application does not need to include:
 1. Official college and high school transcripts
 2. The 800-word essay discussing one of Udall's acts, speeches or policy statements
 3. Letters of recommendation
- You will be notified of the URI nominating committee's decision by January 20. If nominated you will work with Prof. Amador and Ms. Maher on perfecting your essays.
- If you are nominated to go forward, you need to complete the missing pieces of the application and deliver the entire package to Kathleen Maher by noon on February 10th.
