School Psychology Program: Admission, program progression, program completion.

Decision	Timing	Evidence
Program Entry Admission considered as readiness for 1st year practicum	January 15 deadline for applications, in year of September matriculation Interview Day (e.g, March 12, 2010) Offers of admission (e.g., March 15, 2010) Deadline for acceptance of offer or not, April 15	 Application package reviewed by 3 faculty ratings of each application; top rated invited to interview interviews by all faculty in individual or group format interviewees ranked/rated; selected interviewees offered admission through graduate school individual applicants decide to matriculate or not
Year 1 progress, and end of year evaluation; determination of readiness for year 2 practicum	Spring Semester of first year in program	*End of year evaluation *Year 1 practicum ratings *Required coursework completion *Satisfactory benchmark assignments
Year 2 progress, and end of year evaluation; determination of readiness for year 3 Internship	Spring Semester of second year in program	*End of year evaluation *Year 2 practicum ratings *Required coursework completion *Satisfactory benchmark assignments *Successful completion of *Praxis exam—passing score according to National Association of School Psychologists Standards
Internship year progress, and end of year evaluation; determination nomination for licensure and graduation	Spring Semester of first year in program	*Internship performance ratings, mid year and end of year *Regular contact with University supervisor *Completion of case study assignments