

*Center for Nonviolence & Peace Studies
The University of Rhode Island*

Nonviolence Summer Institute 2010

“Love is the only force capable of transforming an enemy into a friend.”
MLK

Kingian Nonviolence Conflict Reconciliation

Based on the philosophy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. the Nonviolence Summer Institute 2010 joins national and international participants interested in learning the skills necessary for promoting peace, nonviolence & social change in their communities.

An intensive training in KINGIAN NONVIOLENCE is the framework where non-profits, professionals, academics, students, government officials, human-rights activists, clergy, law enforcement, health care workers, community, and those interested in promoting peace get together, learn and share their experiences.

Senior Facilitator and Lead Trainer Bernard LaFayette, Jr. Ed. D.

- Dr. LaFayette, friend and confidant of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.
- Civil Rights Movement activist, minister, educator, lecturer.
- Global authority on the strategy of nonviolent social change.
- Co-founder of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC)
- Nashville Sit-Ins, Freedom Rides, Selma Movement, & Alabama Voter Registration.
- Appointed by King as National Program Administrator-Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) & National Coordinator for 1968 Poor Peoples' Campaign.
- Nonviolence training in South Africa, Colombia, Nigeria, Mexico & the Middle East.

Three training options are offered:

	Dates	Tuition
• Introduction to Kingian Nonviolence	July 6 – 10	$500
• Nonviolence Training Certification (Level I)	July 6 – 16	$750
• Advanced Nonviolence Training Certification (Level II)	July 12 – 16	$500

Location: Multicultural Center, University of Rhode Island, Kingston Campus

Academic credit is available for standard tuition fees.

A $100.00 USD non-refundable deposit is due at time of registration.

On-campus housing available for an additional fee.

Registration and fees must be paid by June 4, 2010

Register online at www.uri.edu/nonviolence

FOR MORE INFORMATION:

nonviolence@etal.uri.edu
401.874.9037

