The meeting was called to order at 3:30PM.

- I. The meeting began with a discussion of budgets and the task of finding funding for research and outreach at URI. Included was a discussion on the obstacles encountered while seeking funding and how to overcome them.
- II. John Boulmetis made a motion for an outreach council subcommittee to create an outreach white paper. Sara Hickox seconded the motion.
- III. Melissa McCarthy presented SPIN, a funding search engine that to which the Research Office is a subscriber and makes available to URI IP addresses <<http://www.infoed.org/WConnect/wc.dll?spinwww~jumpspin>>. It can be accessed from the Research Office website.
- IV. Also discussed was the recent response by the Outreach Office, using the new database to an inquiry by President Carothers and Commissioner Holland regarding state agency and school district affiliations with URI Outreach Programs.
- V. The need to refine the database and “evaluate” the programs for annual reward purposes was discussed.
- VI. The meeting adjourned at 4:30PM.
