

Clinical Research Rotation
Maine Medical Center
Pharmaceutical Services
Preceptor: Mehrdad Afsharimehr, Pharm.D., C.Ph., BCPMP.

The objectives of this rotation are for the student to learn the various aspects of obtaining grants, becoming a Primary or Co-Investigator. And finally the details of conducting a Clinical study. Upon the completion of the rotation, the student will learn the following:

- How to obtain Grants.
- Different Phases of drug Trials
- How to become an investigator in a large clinical trial
- Learn the details of the data collection
- FDA rules and regulations
- Responsibilities of the investigators
- How to go through an FDA audit
- How to submit the data collected
- Storage of investigational drugs
- Record keeping of investigational drugs
- Record keeping of Clinical Trials
- Actual experience with Clinical Trials
- Answering the students questions as it pertains to research