

Anne Andrie
PHP 592-593-594

Maine Medical Center

Cardiology

The student will round with a medical Cardiology rounding team, and will be responsible for monitoring the pharmacotherapy of coronary intensive care unit patients. Other experiences include presentation of a journal club, topic presentation to cardiology nursing staff, as well drug use evaluations and other cardiology projects as pertaining to the rotation, as determined by the preceptor. The student will also research answers to drug information questions, and perform patient presentations to the preceptor.