On this ceremonial occasion, let us resolve that its significance shall not be of the day or the hours; that it shall be connected not with experiences, but with sincerity; that as we go forth from this hall, we will strive more earnestly than ever before to make the love of learning and the pursuit of wisdom the companion and guide of life.

*NOTE: Due to the rising costs of materials, printing, postage, etc., we have no choice but to increase membership to $20.
