

EXPLORING YOUR MAJOR MONTH

University College

Roosevelt Hall

Are you...

- A University College student?
- Looking to explore Academic options and possible Careers?

Do you want to...

- Register for classes up to two weeks earlier than your classmates?

If so attend 2 of the following events!

Working in Business: Is the Business major the only way to get there?

Are you interested in working in business, but struggling to succeed in the classes or major? You may be surprised to learn that not every business professional actually majors in business! Viable alternatives will be discussed and suggestions about how you can begin to develop your unique skill set to compete in the marketplace.

Thursday, October 13, 3:00PM – 4:00PM, Roosevelt Hall Great Room

"The people with the most information make the best decisions"

Are you exploring a major or career but don't know what may be the best one for you? Informational Interviewing and Networking can be very helpful. This workshop will help you to use the resources on BEACON and through Career Services you will be able to gather information to choose a major or career that will be a good fit.

Thursday, October 13, 4:00PM-5:00PM, Roosevelt Hall Great Room

"I don't know what I want to do, but I know I just want to be happy." -Undeclared Student, when speaking to a UC advisor Fall '05

Have you said this to yourself too as it relates to choosing a major? Are you concerned about not making the "right" choice? Knowing yourself well and learning how to apply this knowledge of yourself to choice of majors will surely lead to greater academic success. Learn to assess your unique aptitudes and academic preferences in this workshop.

Friday, October 14, 12:00PM – 1:00PM, Roosevelt Hall Great Room

Monday, October 24, 3:00PM – 4:00PM, Roosevelt Hall Great Room

Are you feeling anxious about an advising appointment? Not feeling organized?

Come and learn how to be prepared for your next advising appointment!

Tuesday, October 18, 12:00PM-1:00PM, Roosevelt Hall Great Room

Are you having trouble choosing a major or feeling comfortable with a career path?

Self-assessment plays a crucial role in academic and career decision-making. The URI Career Services office, in partnership with University College, is offering you the opportunity to take an on-line occupational interest inventory, which will give you scores on more than 100 occupational fields. You will receive your comprehensive computer results report in a group workshop on October 18, 2005 if completed by October 12, 2005. As an alternative, you may take a TypeFocus computer assessment and meet one-on-one with a Career Services Advisor. See your undecided academic advisor for details.

Tuesday, October 18, 2:00PM-3:15PM, Memorial Union Room 318

Making the Less "Obvious" Choices: Majoring in Liberal Arts & Humanities

Does a less structured educational plan appeal to you? Would you enjoy having flexibility to customize your educational experience at URI? If so, liberal arts and humanities degrees might be right fit for you. Come learn the real value of these degrees in the workplace.

Wednesday, October 19, 4:00PM-5:00PM, Memorial Union Room 318

Human Development and Family Studies: Come learn about the wonderful opportunities that follow from a major in HDF.

Monday, October 3, 2:00PM-3:00PM in the Great Room with Barbara Newman.

Communication Studies!?: What's it all about and where can I go with it?

Monday, October 17th, 12:00PM-1:00PM in the Great Room with Martha Waitkun.

Textile Marketing and Textile Merchandising & Design: Exploring the majors and career opportunities in these fields.

Tuesday, October 18, 11:00AM-12:00PM in the Great Room with Dr. Harps Logan.

I ♥ Science: Options for students who like the sciences, but are unsure of which major to pick.

Tuesday, October 18, 1:00PM-2:00PM in the Great Room with Kimberly Anderson.

Make an appointment with an advisor by calling 874-2993 or through E-campus!